Airport transfer

There are two international airports in Cyprus: Larnaca (LCA) and Paphos (PFO).* Larnaca Airport is the closest one to Nicosia .

Shuttle service: There is an Airport Shuttle service connecting both airports and Nicosia. You can find information about schedules and fares here: <https://kaposairportshuttle.com/>

Taxi service: Taxi service to/from both airports should be booked in advance. Taxi fares to/from Larnaca airport range from €55-70 (during daytime). Taxi fares to/from Paphos airport are over €170 (during daytime).

We were able to secure a special rate to/from Larnaca airport at the price of €50 and to/from Paphos airport at the price of €150, through VIP Transportation Service. Taxi: Taxi service is also available, albeit more expensive. There are many options for taxi service, including our airport transfer collaborator VIP Transportation Service (contact info provided above). There is also a taxi service app which you can use called CABCY. Uber is not available in Cyprus but a similar service, Bolt, operates on some parts of the island including Nicosia.

Accommodation:

There are accommodation options both in the city center and close to the main UNic campus. When booking accommodation online, be mindful of the possibility that options listed on major booking sites may include accommodation options in the occupied areas, which would require being able to cross the border (pun intended!).
